CORAM : MR.JUSTICE H.H.MEHTA

Date of decision: 17/10/2000

ORAL JUDGEMENT

1. The petitioner-detenu has, by filing this petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, challenged the legality and validity of the order of detention dated 22.6.2000, Annexure-A, in respect of petitioner passed by respondent no. 1 in exercise of his powers conferred upon him under sec. 3(2) of the Gujarat Prevention of Anti Social Activities Act, 1985 (for short 'the Act').

2. As per the papers of grounds of detention, the petitioner-detenu is a 'bootlegger' within the meaning of Sec. 2(b) of the Act and that his activities are prejudicial to the maintenance of public order. Before passing an order of detention, for arriving at a subjective satisfaction, the detaining authority has placed reliance on 3 Prohibition Cases lodged against the petitioner-detenu which are referred to in the grounds of detention, Annexure-B. The detaining authority has also placed reliance on the statements of two anonymous witnesses whose identity has not been disclosed by claiming privilege under sec. 9(2) of the Act. As per the papers, such statements were verified by the detaining authority on 21.6.2000 and on the very next day, i.e. on 22.6.2000 he has passed the order of detention, which is challenged in this petition.

3. Though rule has been served upon all the respondents, they have not filed affidavits-in-reply, in reply to the main petition, controverting the grounds of attack mentioned in the memo of petition.

4. Mr BM Gupta learned advocate for the petitioner has argued that the privilege claimed by the detaining authority is not genuine because he verified the statements on 21.6.2000 and passed an order of detention on 22.6.2000. He placed reliance on the case of Kalidas Chandubhai Kahar vs. State of Gujarat and Ors., reported in 1993 (2) GLR 1659, wherein it has been held that the detaining authority is expected to do some exercise before actually exercising the privilege under Sec. 9(2) of the Act. The facts of the present case are squarely falls within the four corners of the cited case.

5. In view of what is stated hereinabove, this petition is allowed. The impugned order of detention dated 22.6.2000 passed by respondent no. 1 in respect of detenu is set aside. The detenu is ordered to be released forthwith, if he is not required to be detained in any custody for any criminal case or proceeding. Rule is made absolute. Direct service is permitted.
